

Railroad Roadway and Utility Crossing Permits

Location: Berkeley County, West Virginia and Washington County

Project Description:

- Through the years, Fox & Associates, Inc. has gained extensive experience in design and permitting services for rail road roadway and utility bore crossings as well as for the construction of railroad spurs to serve industrial manufacturing clientele. Those permits have been obtained from several different railroad companies including but not limited to CSX, Western Maryland Railroad, Pennsylvania Railroad and Norfolk Southern Railroad. Below please find a list of past projects and types of permits obtained.

Carriage Hill Residential, Washington County, Maryland:

- At Grade Roadway crossing
- 36" Bore Casing for 8" Sewer & 4" Force Main
- 24" Bore Casing for 16" Waterline

Fox Croft Village - South, Martinsburg, West Virginia:

- 48" Bore Casing for 12" Waterline Crossing

Foxleigh Meadows Residential, Hagerstown, Maryland:

- 48" Bore Casing for 12" Water Main

Interstate Industrial Park, Washington County, Maryland:

- 36" Bore Casing for Sewer Main

Massey Boulevard, Washington County, Maryland:

- New Arterial 4-Lane Divided Roadway Crossing

I-70 / 81 Industrial Park, Washington County, Maryland:

- Railroad Spur

Antietam Paper Company, Washington County, Maryland:

- Railroad Spur

Brookfield Subdivision, Berkeley County, West Virginia:

- Bore Casing for 8" Sewer Main

